

WISH WEEK

Wish Week is one of the most popular fundraising events held by schools. It is a week's worth of fundraising, made up of daily activities.

Wish Weeks can happen anytime; although they often culminate around an already existing event, such as homecoming or prom. Choose a time that will engage the most participation from your school!

“Wish Week was one of the most memorable parts of high school and something everybody always looked forward to. No matter what people were going through, Wish Week was a humble reminder of the importance that everyone should come together and focus on something much greater.”
