2019 IMPACT REPORT

OUR MISSION:

Together, we create life-changing wishes for children with critical illnesses.

The Best is Yet to Come!

It's been another incredible year at Make-A-Wish Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana!

We granted nearly 800 life-changing wishes in fiscal year 2019. This is more than any other chapter in the country. We also began revamping our wish-granting process to help more children and families experience the transformational power of a wish. This is a change that will help us get closer to granting the wish of every eligible child. But we still have important work to do to reach our goals.

Right now, more than 2,000 children in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana are waiting for their heartfelt wish to come true. Every one of these kids needs a wish to give them strength and help them heal. They need something that goes beyond their treatments and medications.

They need a wish.

In the coming pages, you'll read transformational wish stories like Andi's, whose wish recharged her fighting spirit and gave her the strength to keep chasing her dreams.

You'll also learn about some of our philanthropic partners and the unique ways they're stepping up in their communities to fill the wish need.

And, you'll find out how you can help bring wishes to life, because to ensure every eligible child gets a wish, we need YOU.

Together, we know we can overcome any obstacle, because our wish kids do it every day. At Make-A-Wish we work to deliver hope, but our wish kids inspire hope in all of us.

We hope you'll join us on our journey to make more life-changing wishes come true in the coming year. The best is yet to come!

Best Wishes,

Your Make-A-Wish Ohio, Kentucky & Indiana Team

This past year we granted our 17,000th wish.

These wishes would not have been possible without YOU.

Every wish we grant is thanks to the communities we serve—from corporate sponsors and individuals who generously give monetary and in-kind donations, to wish-granting volunteers and board members who graciously donate their time and expertise. This fall, the power of community shined through in our 17,000th wish.

17-year-old wish kid Kammy, who battles a rare genetic disorder, loves playgrounds, especially the swings. Her face lights up every time she watches other children laughing and playing on the equipment.

Instead of wishing for something for herself, Kammy selflessly wished to give the Fishers, Indiana community an inclusive swing. To bring her wish to life, local individuals and businesses stepped up to donate money, materials and labor for the swing. And to celebrate the huge milestone, a community celebration was held to honor Kammy and reveal her swing to the public.

Among the crowd were dozens of Kammy's family and friends, as well as the Fishers Mayor who declared it Make-A-Wish Day in the city. Members of the Fishers Fire Department showed up in a fire truck to congratulate Kammy. The Hamilton Southeastern High School Cheerleading team came out to cheer her on. And several local television stations, newspapers and magazines covered the momentous occasion.

*I wish to give the community
an inclusive swing*

Kammy, 17

“We hope that this piece of inclusive playground equipment brings joy to many children and their families for many years to come. Perhaps it will spark a passion to build more inclusive playgrounds in our communities.”
said Kammy’s dad, Jared.

Kammy's wish is one example of the amazing things that can happen when we come together to bring wishes to life. We're so honored to have been a part of Kammy's amazing wish that wouldn't have been possible without the generosity of Make-A-Wish donors, supporters and volunteers like you.

Thank you for making such a meaningful difference in the lives of the kids and families we serve. Here's to the next 17,000 wishes and beyond!

It takes communities coming together to grant life-changing wishes like Kammy's. From donating and volunteering, to sharing our mission, there are many ways you can get involved.

Wish kid Anna's life changed completely after being diagnosed with leukemia at three-years-old.

"It was hard on Anna—her poor little body being pumped full of all kinds of horrific drugs, getting poked thousands of times, missing out on life as a child... it was hard on us too," reflected Anna's dad, Eric.

After missing an entire year of school and being forced to spend much of her days in isolation, away from family and friends due to a compromised immune system, Anna got a dose of hope. She was getting a wish, and she knew exactly what she wanted. She wished to go to Walt Disney World® Resort to become a princess and meet all of her favorite characters.

"These were incredibly trying times on our family," said Eric. "This was a needed and very welcomed break from everything we'd been through."

After completing 2 ½ years of treatment, Anna's heartfelt wish came true.

"I got to have the most amazing time of my life on my wish trip," she said. "I had always dreamed of going to Disney World and meeting all of the Disney princesses, and this wish came true because of Make-A-Wish. Everything about my trip was amazing."

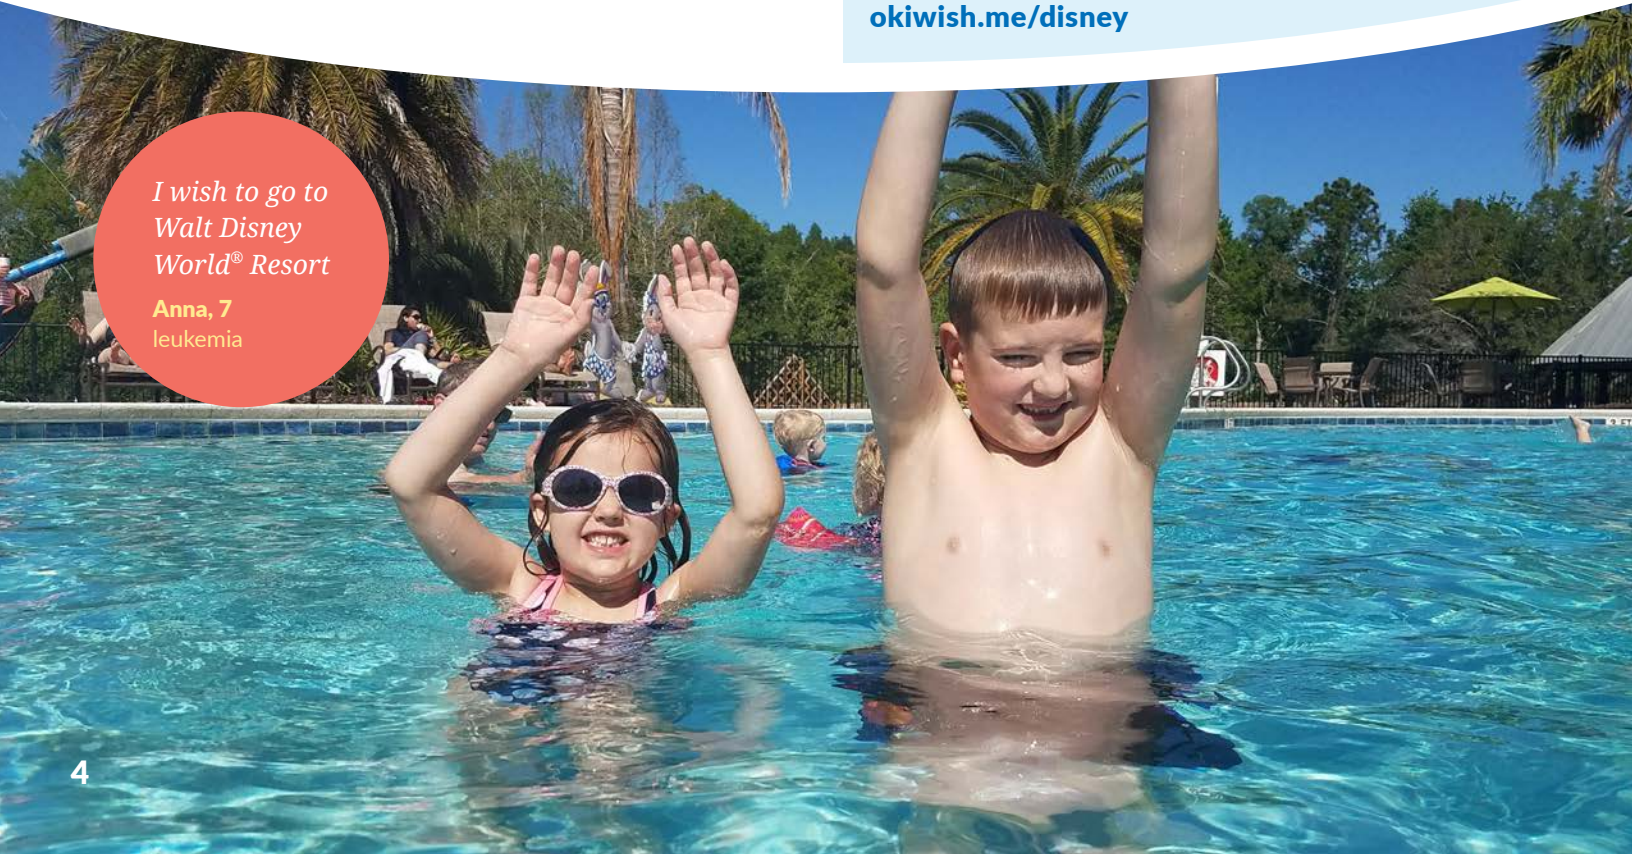

Today, Anna is 7-years-old and a leukemia survivor. She still talks about her wish and calls it, "the trip of a lifetime."

"Our family cannot thank Make-A-Wish and its supporters enough for their generosity to our family," said Eric.

Did you know? "I wish to go to Walt Disney World Resort" is our most popular wish. Since 1980, Disney & Make-A-Wish have granted more than 130,000 life-changing wishes together and counting! You can help send more kids like Anna on the trip of a lifetime. To learn more about Disney wishes, visit: okiwish.me/disney response to treatment.

Wishes are powerful.

At Make-A-Wish OKI, we've seen wishes transform sick kids—giving them the hope, strength and joy they need to keep fighting their illness. Wish kid Andi's story is just one example of the power of a wish.

Growing up, 17-year-old Andi knew she could never enlist in the armed forces due to her battle with cystic fibrosis, but her lifelong dream remained to serve her country like her older sister in the U.S. Air Force and her grandfather who was a Marine. She chose a wish that would push her to the limits mentally and physically—she wished to be a U.S. Navy SEAL.

On the day her wish came true, Andi trained alongside active SEALs, conquering a 40-foot wall and parallel bars as well as other physically challenging obstacles. And she never gave up. As Andi completed a final water exercise in the ocean, she felt completely at peace as the waves crashed over her. In that moment, she was transformed.

To watch a video about Andi's wish experience as a Navy SEAL, visit: okiwish.me/andi

"I laid back and I finally just kind of let myself feel it," reflected Andi. "The way that it felt to me was that, 'No, I'm never going to get to feel this again, but at least I get to feel it just this once.' It was an amazing experience. I got to prove myself if only for a day, and I went at it head-on."

Andi's wish experience helped her demonstrate to herself that she could overcome anything and inspired her to keep chasing her dreams, no matter what obstacles stand in her way.

So impressed with her courage, Andi was named as the first female honorary Navy SEAL after her wish experience. Since then, Andi said she's more determined than ever to continue pursuing a career with the Navy, perhaps behind the camera as a Navy photographer. We know she'll accomplish anything she wants to do!

Olivia's She-shed Wish

We can't grant wishes without volunteers. Wish granting volunteers are trained community members who get the rewarding opportunity to meet with wish kids and their families to determine a child's one true wish. But in some counties, wish kids wait longer than others to meet with a wish-granting volunteer due to a volunteer shortage.

In the county where 8-year-old wish kid Olivia lives in rural southern Ohio, there are only a handful of trained volunteers. Volunteer Nicole Davis is one of them. She recruited friends and family to get trained to bring Olivia's wish for a she-shed to life as quickly as possible.

I wish to have a she-shed

Olivia, 8

"Kids in this area wait a long time," said Davis. "We need volunteers! It is super fun. Hearing what they want, writing it down, seeing it all come together, makes it all worth it."

Olivia wished for a she-shed so she could have a place all her own, a special space where she could rest and recharge after undergoing grueling chemotherapy for the past two-and-a-half-years.

"She's missed out on everything," said her mom. "She used to be a cheerleader. She used to play soccer, but she can't do those things anymore because of her weakened immune system."

Olivia designed her she-shed with her favorite colors and lots of unicorns. She couldn't stop smiling as she took her first step inside. "This is my new home!" she exclaimed. "I thought since trips you can only do one time, a she-shed you can have as a wish forever."

In her she-shed, Olivia can focus on just being a kid and look forward to life after leukemia—a wish come true!

THANK YOU!

to Pete DeLois with Recreations Outlet, who helped make Olivia's wish a reality. Pete is one of our most generous in-kind donors who has made dozens of project wishes for things like playsets and treehouses come true. We're so glad you're part of the Make-A-Wish OKI family, Pete!

We're so grateful to our dedicated volunteers who help deliver hope and create transformational experiences for kids like Olivia and her family!

The Blue Shirts have done it again!

For the 28th year, The Northwestern Ohio Tractor Pullers Association (NWOTPA) and Make-A-Wish OKI pulled together to raise money to grant wishes for children in northwest Ohio battling critical illnesses.

It was another incredible year! The organization brought in a record $403,000 in 2019!

To date, more than $1.5 million has been raised for Make-A-Wish OKI.

Every year, our generous partners host awesome events like the Tractor Pull and Make-A-Wish Day at Keeneland in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana benefiting Make-A-Wish OKI. To make sure you don't miss an event, sign up to get our emails by visiting:

Ten wish kids from across central Kentucky were honored at Make-A-Wish Day at Keeneland, an event that brings local Thoroughbred farms and organizations, and racing fans together to grant life-changing wishes for Kentucky kids.

Kids like Andy and Carlie got a VIP experience on race day and had the honor of presenting the trophy to the winning jockey after each race.

The 2019 Make-A-Wish Day at Keeneland raised enough to grant 10 wishes for Kentucky kids! The annual event has raised enough to grant nearly 120 wishes since it began 12 years ago.

When wish kid Sami learned she was getting a wish, she wished, “to have,” but not for anything physical.

Her unique wish was to have a body positivity campaign to help other young women struggling with body image find confidence, strength and most importantly, self-love. Because Sami could relate—she herself didn’t like to look in the mirror.

“I struggled and still struggle to love my own skin. It’s just not easy for me,” she said.

Sami, 19
cancer

After being diagnosed with cancer, and enduring grueling chemotherapy and radiation, her outlook on life changed. She realized that loving herself was the key to happiness.

Once afraid of seeing herself in pictures, during her wish, Sami confidently posed for a professional photographer with one of the nation’s largest intimates, apparel, activewear & swimwear companies, Aerie. The company featured her in a product online and shared her story on its blog and social platforms.

“I’m hopeful that I inspire women and influence them to believe that they are beautiful no matter what,” reflected Sami. “Knowing that I have not only positively impacted myself, but other women as well, is certainly a wish well spent in my book!”

Sami’s wish made her realize even more that she is beautiful inside and out. Today, she’s cancer-free and continues to spread a message about self-acceptance to other young people like her. Thank you, Sami, for inspiring all of us!

Did you know that nearly 1 out of 5 of our wishes are travel and international wishes?

In 2019, we saw a 13% year-over-year increase in these types of wishes. With more wish kids wishing to travel, we're spending more on airfare than ever before. But thanks to generous donors who gift us airmiles, we're able to save significantly on airfare costs.

One of those generous donors is Cincinnati businessman and Make-A-Wish OKI Governing Board Member, David Bastos. Bastos has donated 300,000 Delta airmiles and counting to Make-A-Wish OKI. That's enough to send up to a dozen wish kids to places like Walt Disney World® Resort and to the beach—kids like 9-year-old Blake.

Blake, who battles a nervous system disorder, wished to go to Hawaii to swim with dolphins. Her wish is coming true in the spring and she and her family are flying to the Aloha State thanks to donated airmiles from Bastos.

You too can support our Wishes in Flight® Program. Nationally, Make-A-Wish would need more than 3 billion miles, or 50,000 round-trip tickets, to cover every travel wish each year. Every mile donated helps wish kids and their families travel to destinations around the world and once donated, your miles never expire.
