An All-American Road Trip

Make-A-Wish
IDAHO

I wish to go on an RV road trip to Yellowstone National Park

Ryder, 10
lymphoma

It all started when Ryder toppled off of a fence and landed smack on his belly, an accident that could easily happen to any active kiddo, but later that day when he woke up from a nap in extreme pain, his parents rushed him to the hospital. Ryder's intestine had ruptured. The doctors also found a grapefruit-sized tumor.

His parents describe the accident as "a blessing" because it revealed the deadly illness which could have otherwise gone undetected until it was too late. Ryder was airlifted to Salt Lake City that day.

After months of grueling treatment and long, boring drives to Utah, he was declared cancer-free in November 2020.

Ryder, tired of taking dull, lengthy trips to the hospital, wished for a road trip of a different sort. He wished to go to Yellowstone National Park over the Fourth of July weekend in a luxurious RV.

On his trip, he witnessed the breathtaking, annual fireworks show and presided over the West Yellowstone parade as its grand marshal. Ryder, an avid fisherman, also experienced a world-class, guided fishing trip, savored the numerous natural sites and delighted in plenty of fun V.I.P. treatment.

I am so honored to be a part of the Make-A-Wish® Foundation, serving our community and the great state of Idaho. My husband and I moved to Boise in June 2020 and as soon as we were settled in, felt it was our duty to become more involved with the city and state we love.

After learning more about the many ways Make-A-Wish Idaho gives back to the families across the state, I knew this foundation reflected my core values. I believe it is important to be in service to the communities, children and families that make this state such a wonderful place to live. It is through this commitment to the youth and future of our community that makes Make-A-Wish Idaho such an important and special place to offer my time and support.

Your Will: It's More Than Legalese

It's one of the most important legal documents you'll ever create; a will dictates how you want your assets distributed after you're gone. But beyond legalities, a will is a reflection of your life.

A well-planned will relieves family members from having to guess your final wishes, and it ensures they are taken care of in the manner you specify. Your will can also provide you with peace of mind for the future by knowing your loved ones are taken care of.

With the uncertainty the last year has brought, many people are finding themselves thinking about the future. If you don't yet have a will in place, consider what one can do for you:

- Name a guardian for minor children
- Make financial arrangements for family members
- Provide for a pet
- Direct the division of your property (so the state does not)
- Choose the executor of your estate
- Provide for a charitable organization

Extend Your Support

In addition to caring for loved ones, you can also use your will to extend your legacy by using it to provide for an organization like Make-A-Wish Idaho. This simple gift doesn't require you to part with assets today but will have a lasting impact on Make-A-Wish Idaho and the children (and families) we serve.

Use Your Will to Grant Wishes

If you are interested in including a gift to Make-A-Wish Idaho in your will, please contact us at jbest@idaho.wish.org. We are happy to provide you with language your attorney can use to make your gift or add a gift to your existing document.
