

Make-A-Wish and Michael Jordan set a new record

NBA legend Michael Jordan is celebrating his 60th birthday on Friday by making a $10 million donation to Make-A-Wish America.

It's the largest individual contribution the organization has received in its 43-year history.

The donation is Jordan's latest sign of support — the first wish he granted was in 1989, and he's fulfilled hundreds more wishes to children with critical illnesses since. Continue reading on NPR.

Wish Granted!

PICTURED: This wish is LEGENDary! Last week in Charlotte, six local wish kids met their idol—basketball legend and Make-A-Wish America Chief Wish Ambassador Michael Jordan! Thank you, MJ, for always making our wish families feel like MVPs!

-March 7, 2023

To meet
Michael Jordan
Charlotte area
Wish Kids

In the News

(February 2023)

Michael Jordan sets
another record — a $10 million donation to Make-
A-Wish

Read the full story on NPR

